During this course, we will explore the way each of the four evangelists use the Old Testament to help us better understand Christ's identity.

The sessions will be led by Br. Isaac Morales, O.P., a Dominican friar who will be serving at our parish throughout the summer. Before entering the Order of Preachers, Br. Isaac received a Ph.D. in New Testament from Duke University and worked as an assistant professor in the Department of Theology at Marquette University. In March, Br. Isaac was ordained to the diaconate, and is preparing for ordination to the priesthood in 2018.

The course is held each Tuesday evening during the month of June at 6:45 PM in the Parish Hall at the Church of St. Vincent Ferrer.

CORPUS CHRISTI PROCESSION IN THE DOMINICAN RITE

THE LOVE THAT WELCOMES

By the time you read these lines we will have celebrated, on June 8, our Volunteer Appreciation Party. This is our attempt to conclude the parish year with the recognition that the parish year only happens because of the donation of time and energy. In the heart of one of the world's great commercial cities our parish, and many others of course, lives in an economy of gift. Our parish thrives because it continuously receives services it could never pay for.

When people describe their volunteering phrases come to the fore such as "giving back," "I get back more than I ever give," and "this fulfills me." These expressions speak to the aspect of service that, "does for." Here we can locate giving as an outlet and a growth for the giver. But I perceive that those who volunteer in a community such as ours not only give to us, they also include us profoundly in their lives.

Catholic Christianity has always recognized that people engage with the life of the Church at varying levels of intensity. For some this will mean fulfilling obligations, for others receiving spiritual services, and for others supporting initiatives for good in the world. Those who volunteer receive the grace of an engagement that goes beyond supporting the Church to welcoming her into the heart of their lives. For these folks the cycle of feasts and fasts begins to shape the contours of domestic life, and the people and places of the Church cease to be external and become extensions of self.

I think that those who volunteer must be amazed at how often they become the first preacher. They extend a greeting to all comers across a church bulletin or a cup of coffee and so put a human face something as vast as the Catholic Church. Before anyone ever hears a priest at Mass they hear a lay volunteer interpret the Scriptures so that prophecy, psalm, history, and exhortation come off the page with a real New York inflection. Some people would never enter a Catholic church, but the Catholic Church comes into their homeless shelter with a smile and tangible consolations in a difficult life: volunteers bring not only kindness but the willingness to embrace a completely different pattern of life as part of the pattern of their own.

It amazes me to see a server run like a commuter to be on time to help with the Liturgy. He has made our concern his own. The very systems of parish life run because volunteers open the realm of their preoccupation to include things like scheduling, budgeting, shopping, and cleaning up.

We never understand the Church until we see the ways in which the ordinary isn't. The work of volunteers not only establishes a culture of decency and generosity; it gives a sign of the mystery of the life of God we celebrate today. Whenever Jesus describes the love and life of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, He speaks in terms of inclusion. The persons of the Trinity never act separately but refer to each other in the creation, and in the re-creation in Christ. Volunteers show us how the way of loving that is within God is reshaping our way of loving, person by person.

This weekend we are honoring Fr. Joseph Allen's fifty years of priestly ministry. Here we find joy in another instance of trinitarian love. After decades of dedicated service Fr. Allen came among us in September of 2015, and he has included us by making our problems, challenges, and joys his own. With his customary zeal he has included new people from our parish into his longstanding ministry of pilgrimage to Lourdes. He has widened the patterns of his life to include our people, and in so doing he has made it possible for them to enlarge their circle of loving to include the sick and the handicapped.

I wonder how often this kind of love embraces us without our realizing it. Yet when we have been included without strings we discover our own generosity. And so it continues.

Thank You!

Fr. Walter

CATHOLIC GUIDANCE FOR END-OF-LIFE DECISION MAKING

End-of-Life decisions, for ourselves and for loved ones, are among the most challenging we will ever face. There is a movement in our nation to legalize assisted suicide, but that is a false answer and is a dangerous experiment. Our Church offers comfort and practical guidance to live and die with dignity. Visit www.CatholicEndofLife.org to watch the video and read the New York State Bishops' document "Now and at the Hour of Our Death." Learn why the Church favors compassionate medical care, and why the Church opposes physician-assisted suicide.

OPPOSE ASSISTED SUICIDE

Legislation has been introduced in New York State (the so-called "Medical Aid in Dying Act", A.2383/S.3151) that would allow doctors to legally prescribe a lethal dose of pills at the request of a terminally ill patient. While proponents call these bills "death with dignity" and "patient self-determination," in reality they are unnecessary, flawed, and dangerous. Legalizing assisted suicide would endanger elderly, disabled, and vulnerable people. It will send the message to others that depression and other mental illnesses untreated. And it will turn doctors and other health professionals from healers into killers. We encourage you to contact your state legislators and urge them to oppose assisted suicide legislation. Please inform yourself about the dangers in this bill by visiting <https://archny.org/assisted-suicide> or <http://noassisted-suicideny.org/>.

Dear Fr. Wagner,

Thank you for welcoming us to St. Vincent Ferrer and St. Catherine's Parish for a collection. Each year your parishioners are very generous to us, but with the second church involved, we certainly had a tremendous collection. It totaled $11,213.00 which includes your own generous donation from the St. Vincent de Paul Society.

As usual, your Social Concerns Committee never forgets us, and the lovely gift bags are wonderful – we will probably distribute them this Sunday to the Residents. The bulletin for the weekend we were there was filled with appeals for us and our ministry and for that we are so grateful! We are continually edified by how much your people embrace us.

Please express our gratitude to all of them – for the collection and the toiletries – we really cannot continue this beautiful vocation of love and care without their help! Let them know that we pray daily for all of our benefactors and have a monthly Mass offered for them. God bless you and all the Dominicans and the good people there at St. Vincent Ferrer & St. Catherine of Siena.

Sincerely in Christ,

Sr. Mary John, I.S.P.

Reflections on Ethics, Faith & Health Care

EDITOR: FR. JONAH POLLOCK, O.P., S.T.L.

HEALTH CARE and the HOLY SPIRIT

By Fr. Jonah Pollock, O.P., S.T.L., Executive Director, Dominican Friars Health Care Ministry of New York

Every year at Pentecost the Church commemorates the outpouring of the Holy Spirit upon the apostles and the Blessed Virgin Mary as they gathered in Jerusalem awaiting the “promise of the Father” (Acts 1:4): the gift of the Holy Spirit that continues to be poured out upon the disciples of Jesus. At Pentecost, we celebrate all the ways in which the Holy Spirit is present and active in our lives and in the lives of those we love and serve. For those who have devoted themselves to the service of the sick and suffering, we might reflect upon the ways in which the Holy Spirit is present and active in the lives of the persons for whom we care and how the Holy Spirit can work in us for them.

The Holy Spirit is the Giver of Life

In the Nicene Creed we profess, “I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord and giver of life.” We see this life-giving work of the Holy Spirit in the creation of the world. Genesis tells us that when “God created the heavens and the earth” (Gen 1:1), “the Spirit of God was moving over the face of the waters” (Gen 1:2). We see the Holy Spirit’s role most especially in the creation of the human being. When God formed a man out of the dust of the ground, He “breathed into his nostrils the breath of life” (Gen 2:7). In the Biblical languages, ‘breath’ and ‘spirit’ are signified by the same words. When we read that God breathed into the body of the man, we are meant to understand that God gave life to the man through the working of God’s life-giving Spirit. When the God’s people had fallen into sin, God promised to restore them by the gift of the Spirit: “I will put my spirit within you . . . and I will be your God” (Ezek 36:27-28). The Holy Spirit is also the giver of new life in Christ. We read in Saint Paul’s letter to the Romans, “If the Spirit of him who raised Jesus from the dead dwells in you, he who raised Jesus from the dead will give life to your mortal bodies also through his Spirit who dwells in you” (Rom 8:11).

The Holy Spirit is the giver of life, the restorer of life, and the renewer of life. When a person is sick, it the Holy Spirit who is able to restore again the life that is His gift. We do well to pray to the Holy Spirit for healing. In fact, “gifts of healing” are among the gifts of the Spirit enumerated by Saint Paul (see 1 Cor 12:9). We also pray to the Holy Spirit for the renewal of the inner life of the sick person. Saint Paul tells us that the Holy Spirit dwells in us as in a temple. When a person is sick, especially if that person is in danger of death, we pray that the Holy Spirit will be working in their hearts and giving life to their souls.

The Holy Spirit Speaks through the Prophets

We also profess in the Nicene Creed that the Holy Spirit has “spoken through the prophets.” This certainly means we believe the Holy Spirit has inspired the spoken and written words of the Old Testament prophets and the Biblical writers. But Scripture also says that the Holy Spirit speaks in us. Jesus tells his disciples, “Do not be anxious how or what you are to answer or what you are to say, for the Holy Spirit will teach you in that very hour what you ought to say” (Luke 12:11-12). Saint Paul says, “No one can say, ‘Jesus is Lord’ except by the Holy Spirit” (1 Cor 12:3).

It can be difficult to know what to say to a person who is sick and suffering. Yet, the kind words of a doctor or nurse can be a great consolation to a hospitalized patient. Words of encouragement, faith and prayer from a chaplain or Eucharistic minister can go a long way. The Holy Spirit can give us those words. The Holy Spirit can speak through us and give to our words the power of God’s Word.

The Holy Spirit is the Advocate

“The Advocate, the Holy Spirit that the Father will send in my name – he will teach you everything and remind you of all that I told you” (John 14:26). The Holy Spirit is the Advocate. The Greek word we translate as “advocate” (paracletos) can also be translated using a variety of other English words, including “counselor”, ‘comforter’, ‘defender’, and ‘mediator’. This range of meanings suggests that we can call upon the Holy Spirit for different kinds of help in different sets of circumstances. Saint Paul tells us that “the Spirit helps us in our weakness” and “intercedes for us with sighs too deep for words” (Rom 8:26).

It is comforting to know that the Holy Spirit is an advocate and intercessor for the sick people in our care. We are all weak and in need of the Spirit’s comfort, counsel and protection. However, the sick and suffering are afflicted with different kinds of weakness and have a variety of particular needs. It is good to know that the Spirit helps them in their weakness. It is also good to remind our sick brothers and sisters of that promise. Come, Holy Spirit!
